LA REGIA MONDO GIUSTO Ore e ore a programmare, a calcolare, reperire materiali, dedicando il proprio tempo libero nel silenzio operoso e gratuito.

 Uomini che hanno vissuto in modo pieno per un ideale, con una missione da compiere, e per essa hanno operato con passione e coerenza per tutto l'arco della loro vita.

ESSERE VOLONTARIO

• E' difficile indicare i tratti comuni di questa profonda esperienza umana, ma tutti hanno dovuto: immergersi nella povertà africana, vivere molto più semplicemente che a casa propria, lasciare casa, abitudini e amici, interrompere una carriera professionale, rinunciare a uno stipendio, adattarsi a un ambiente fisico e psicologico diverso, avere per compagni di lavoro gente diversa per cultura e livello di vita, soffrire con e per un popolo diverso, sperimentare nel silenzio i soprusi di un regime oppressivo, corrotto e sfruttatore.

•AMG non è stata una meteora, un passaggio di tecnici, ma attraverso i suoi volontari, il loro quotidiano servizio è stata una presenza umana con uno scambio, un confronto, fra modi di vita diversi.

• L'acqua vuol dire vita, mentre viaggiavo e guardavo tutta questa gente mi sono chiesto: quanta di questa gente è viva perché AMG ha dato innanzitutto l'acqua, ma anche assistenza sanitaria, energia, centri nutrizionali, strade ponti ecc. ? Si a nostro modo abbiamo molti figli, gente viva per quello che abbiamo fatto.

 Quando penso che le nostre centrali cominciano ad essere vecchie, ripenso con orgoglio al lavoro fatto, al coraggio avuto nel farle, 20-30 anni fa e mi preoccupo del loro futuro.

Persone come queste, come i missionari, i volontari, scaldano il cuore e ci dicono che, nonostante l'egoismo e la chiusura, che oggi sembrano talvolta prendere il sopravvento, la carità cristiana e un "mondo giusto" sono comunque possibili.

Le strade della vita possono allontanare fisicamente le persone, ma tenerle unite nello spirito, quando c'è tra di esse un forte elemento di coesione ideale, quando il passato non è stato solo tempo trascorso insieme ad altri, ma anche condivisione di valori, mutuo aiuto, vita spartita realmente assieme.
